

Creative Matter Submissions Guidelines

Contributors will be asked to accept a Submission Agreement as they deposit content. The agreement states that the contributor, to the best of their knowledge, either owns the rights to the work or has the permission of the rights holder to make the content available. Submissions should be made with the understanding that, unless specific arrangements have been made with Creative Matter administrators, or, an embargo is known to exist, content will immediately become available to anyone who accesses the site. If a contributor wishes to withdraw a submission for any reason, they may contact Creative Matter administrators and the content will be immediately removed.

Creative Matter administrators reserve the right to accept or reject any content, in part or in whole, submitted to the repository, and to remove any content found to be in violation of the Submission Agreement.
